Education

Ph.D., Statistics, The George Washington University, USA, 1997

Master of Philosophy, Statistics, The George Washington University, USA, 1995

B. Sc., Mathematics, University of Athens, Greece, 1990

Employment

- Department of Social and Educational Policy, University of Peloponnese, Korinthos, Greece, 2004—present
- Department of Statistics and Actuarial Science, University of the Aegean, Samos, Greece, 2002-2004
- Center for Educational Research, Athens, Greece, 2000-2002
- The World Bank, Washington, 1996-1998
- Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Cyprus & Toledo, Ohio

Research interests

Bayesian Statistics, sample size determination, statistical modeling in educational data
