

Welcome to the Erasmus site of the Department of Social and Education Policy of the University of Peloponnese. This section is addressed especially to European students, who consider spending in the future an Erasmus study period in Greece.

Our main aim is to provide you with basic information concerning the Department and matters such as courses given in English, registration and accommodation. We believe you will find it useful in preparing for your study visit to our Department.

It is obvious that all your questions cannot be answered through a site, but we hope that we cover many of the queries you might have. Should you have further questions, please, do not hesitate to contact us and we will do our best to help you.

We should like to encourage you to take full advantage of the valuable opportunity offered to you to participate in European Union's mobility programmes, to widen your horizons, enrich your knowledge and acquire new experience.
